

10 Different Traits of a Leader and a Boss

To further understand this, here are the characteristics that separate a leader from a boss:

Leader

Boss

MOTIVATES

THREATENS

LEADS

RULES

SAYS "WE"

SAYS "I"

DEVELOPS PEOPLE

USES PEOPLE

GIVES CREDIT TO MEMBERS

TAKES CREDIT FROM MEMBERS

ESTABLISHES EQUAL RELATIONSHIPS

MANIFESTS FAVORITISM

OFFERS CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM

HUMILIATES

LISTENS TO OPINIONS

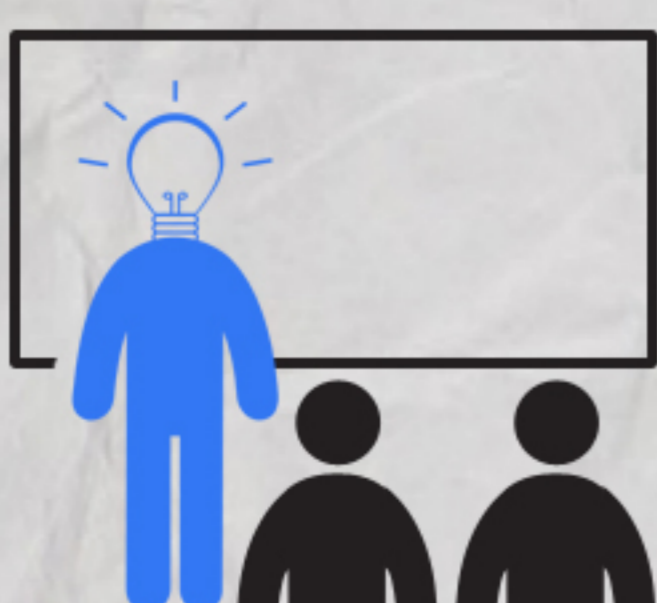

COMMANDS

ENCOURAGES TEAM WORK

ESTABLISHES SUPERIORITY

TEACHES OTHERS WHAT HE/ SHE KNOWS

KEEPS KNOWLEDGE TO HIMSELF/ HERSELF

Now, would you rather work for a boss or a leader?

Aristotle once said, "He who cannot be a good follower cannot be a good leader".

So if you aim to lead your own team in the future, start off by being a good member. Your first step is to follow these resume examples to construct the best resume that will surely land you your dream job.

Sources: Taxi, Elite Daily, Inc., Kelly Heritage, The Virtual HR Doctor, Awesome Fun